ACTION PLAN ACTIVITIES OF MSMEDI, CUTTACK DURING THE YEAR 2011- 2012

DETAILED REPORT

1) Odisha State Industrial Profile

Odisha State Industrial Profile was prepared/ updated once in a year up to 2003-04. As per the guidelines of O/o DC (MSME), New Delhi this report is being prepared/updated in every alternative year from 2005-2006. The last issue of Odisha State Industrial Profile was updated under Action Plan 2009-10. This issue has been brought out during 2011-2012 for the benefit of the MSME entrepreneurs. The report works like a manual to the entrepreneurs, promotional agencies, financial institutions including banks, academic institutions and researchers as a stock of information/data on various aspects like availability of natural resources, raw materials, human resources, financial assistance, technical services including infrastructure facilities and scope of setting up new industries, role of promotional agencies and incentives given and schemes operated, growth of MSMEs, its pattern and other relevant information of the state are systematically incorporated in the report. The broad objective of preparation of this report is

- i) To analyze the availability of human and material resources in the state
- ii) To assess the infrastructural facilities available to plan for industrial development
- iii) To evaluate the progress of industrialization achieved so far in the state depending upon the available resources and infrastructure.
- iv) To explore the scope of setting up of units in the MSME Sector.
- v) Role of promotional agencies and Financial Institutions in promoting MSMEs.
- vi) Schemes and incentives given for promotion and development of MSMEs.

2) District Industrial Potentiality Survey

District Industrial Potentiality Survey focuses on the physical and geographical features, availability of natural, human resources and the present status of industrial development as well as availability of infrastructural facilities for further industrial development in the district. The Industrial Potentiality Survey is undertaken with the following objectives.

- To explore the natural and human resources and skill.

- To assess the available infrastructure for industrial development.
- To evaluate the existing industrial activities of the district, utilizing the resources and also catering to the local demand.
- To identify some of the viable projects in MSME sector which can come up in the district in the ensuing years based upon the locally available surplus resources and the demand factor.

This report is very much useful for both existing and prospective entrepreneurs and the organizations dealing in promotion and development of MSME Sector, financial institutions, academic and research institutes.

As the State of Odisha is having 30 districts at present, 6 districts have been covered during the year 2011-12 as per the guidelines issued by DC (MSME), New Delhi. While selecting the districts for Potentiality Survey, the backwardness of districts as well as the year of previous survey has been taken into account. The Table below reflects the districts covered for survey during last five years.

More specifically, the thrust was to create an awareness on IP issues and their implications for product development, product design, service delivery, marketing, raising financial resources, exporting, licensing or franchising in a globalized business environment and how to protect their innovation, creativity and knowledge effectively. One-day Sensitization Programme on Intellectual Property Rights was held at Hotel Kalinga Ashoka, Bhubaneswar on 13-12-2011. At the outset Sri P.K. Gupta, Deputy Director (Elect.), MSMEDI, Cuttack welcomed the participants, print and electronics media and distinguished resources persons on IPR and Sri Alok Ray, Director, MSMEDI, Cuttack who have attended the programme despite their busy schedule. Sri Alok Ray, Director, MSMEDI, Cuttack inaugurate the programme by lighting the ceremonial lamp as Chief Guest.

Dr. Sukanta Kumar Sahoo, Asst. Director (E.I.) and coordinator of the programme briefed the house about the objective of the programme in detail.

Prof. Krishna Mahajan, Law University Cuttack in his address told that in our country we do not have scientific method for implementation of IPR. In our country government has launched different schemes for all round promotion and development of industries as a result of which the benefits are directly goes to the industrialists/owner of the units. But the employees who are really the core persons for development of industries are deprived of the benefits. So Government should make law for the employees who are working in the industrial sector to get the benefit at par with his owner/industrialists. So the movement should start from the small enterprises. Generally idea emanated from the lower levels, who are working in the field.

Sri Durga Prasad Nanda, UCCI, Bhubaneswar in his address told that small enterprises could not compete with the global market due to high population, slow process of implementation, lack of legal support for educating the entrepreneurs etc.

Sri Alok Ray, Director, MSMEDI, Cuttack in his inaugural address told that with the liberalisation and globalisation of the Indian economy, the small enterprises in India have unprecedented opportunities on the one hand, and face serious challenges, on the other. Government of India is fully aware of the challenges of globalisation and has taken appropriate measures for preparing the Micro & Small Enterprises (MSEs) to meet the challenges of liberalisation and globalisation. Taking a view of the whole situation, the Government has put in place several measures to help small enterprises to become globally competitive. These include schemes /programmes for technology upgradation, development of clusters of such industries, making collateral free bank credit, creating awareness among these industries regarding export-related issues, etc. Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSME) also conducting workshops on various aspects of WTO, Anti-dumping seminars, IPR, etc. to sensitize the MSMEs entrepreneurs and other stakeholders about the likely impact of liberalisation and globalisation. Keeping this in view, this office has conducted a one-day Sensitization Programme at RCCI, Rourkela which has got tremendous momentum from the participants.

It is hoped that to-days sensitization programme would be a meaningful one and dear participants would acquire some basic inputs on IPR.

The inaugural session of the programme was ended with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. S.K. Sahoo, Asst. Director (E.I.), MSMEDI, Cuttack.

Technical sessions started after inaugural session.

Dr. Indira Banerjee, LS Dabar Co., Kolkata delivered on "Importance of Patent in the competitiveness of SMEs". She told that IPR has a special importance for the economical growth of a country. The capacities of our MSMEs are very remarkable. There are 26 million of MSE units in the country providing employment opportunities to 60 millions of people. The contribution of MSME is around 45% in terms of manufacturing and 40% towards exports and producing more than 8000 products. During the recent years it has been increased 10 times. 17% of industries have applied for patent out of which the contribution of MSME is 2% which is very negligible. During the year the patent offices have received more than 1000 applications. The Patent law of India has the following features that decide whether a patent will be granted or not:

The objective of patent law is to encourage scientific research, new technology and industrial progress. The grant of monopoly is the disclosure of the invention at the Patent Office, which, after the expiry of the fixed period of the monopoly, passes into the public domain.

The fundamental principle of Patent law is that a patent is granted only for an invention which must have novelty and utility. It is essential for the validity of a patent that it must be the inventor's own discovery as opposed to mere verification of what was, already known before the date of the patent.

The previous Act of 1911 does not specify the requirement of being, useful, in the definition of invention, but courts have always taken the view that a patentable invention, apart from being a new manufacture, must also be useful.

In order to be patentable, an improvement on something known before or a combination of different matters already known should be something more than a mere workshop improvement and must independently satisfy the test of invention or an inventive step. It must produce a new result, or a new article or a better or cheaper article than before. The new subject matter must involve "invention" over what is old. Mere collocation of more than one, integers or things, not involving the exercise of any inventive faculty does not qualify for the grant of a patent.

To decide whether an alleged invention involves novelty and an inventive step, certain broad criteria can be indicated. Firstly if the "manner of manufacture" patented, was publicly known, used or practised in the country before or at the date of the patent, it will negative novelty or 'subject matter'. Prior public knowledge of the alleged invention can be by word of mouth or by publication through books or other media. Secondly, the alleged discovery must not be the obvious or natural suggestion of what was previously known.

Ms. Kajal Sinha, LS Dabar and Co., Kolkata delivered talk on Trade mark and copy right. A Trade Mark is a visual symbol in the form of a word , a device ,or a label applied to articles of commerce with a view to indicate to the purchasing public that is a good manufactured or other wise dealt in by a particular person as distinguished from similar goods dealt or manufactured by other persons.

It deals with the precise nature of the rights which a person can acquire in respect of a Transfer mode.The mode of acquisition of such rights -the method of transfer of those rights to others-the precise nature of infringement of such rights-and the remedies available in respect thereof.

- It identifies the product of its origin
- It guaranties its unchanged quality
- It advertises the products &
- It creates an image for products. Good Trade mark should be easy to pronounce and remember if it is a word mark.
- In case of a device mark, it should be capable of being described by a single word.
- It will be easy to spell correctly and write legibly
- It should not be descriptive
- It should be short
- It should appeal to the eye as well as the ear
- It should not belong to the class of marks prohibited for registration
- It should satisfy the requirements of registration.

Trademark is a major asset of any company. Hence ' trademarks management ' in an enterprise comprises two aspects:

1. Trademark Policy
2. Trademark Protection

Trademark policy is a marketing function. Normally the marketing personnel of an organization will take care of this trademark policy letter known as ' Brand Management ' .

Trademark protection is a legal function .In small enterprise one of the tasks of the legal department is to assure the protection of company's trademarks. In large enterprises there is need to create a specific department known as ' Trademarks department' which will look after the ' Trademarks Management ' .

Since trademark protection is a legal function, the trade marks department best assure its role when it is integrated in the legal function of an organization.

The principal duty of the Trademarks Department is to protect and administer the trademark of the company i.e. by getting registration under the relevant laws of a particular country, the country of registration, the list and classes of goods and the services covered , renewals, action against the infringes and dishonest users and so on.

Functions of the trade mark department for proper trademark management.

- Advise the marketing department with regard to the choice of a new trademark.
- Legal clearance of a new trade mark by conducting searches in the Trademarks Registry and also in the market places with regard to the availability of identical or similar marks in respect of similar goods and services.
- Submit trademark applications and advise the company to go for registration in a country where the goods are to be exported or sold.
- Since there is globalization of industry and trade, it is better to seek International protection of the trademarks and other Intellectual Property.
- Advise the company for proper use of trademarks after obtaining registration in order to avoid the attack on the registered trademarks on the ground of non-use by business competitors.
- Initiate legal action against infringes by filing civil suits or criminal complaint against infringes and dishonest traders.
- To conduct search and raid the premises when the infringed or spurious goods are being manufactured or marketed with the help of local police personnel after lodging criminal complaint.

On copy rights Ms. Sinha told that a copyright essentially ensures that any creative work cannot be copied without the permission of the author/creator. This allows the author to charge others for copying his work, or modifying it, or building on top of it. For example, everyone who sells any Calvin & Hobbes stickers is violating the copyright of creator Bill Watterson. For a creative work to be protected by copyright law, it needs to be something concrete – i.e. put into some physical format. It can be the source code of a software program, or the binary executable file, or a piece of music, or a movie, or the text in a book, or a photograph, or a painting, or a speech.

Concepts/ideas/algorithms cannot be copyrighted. If you invented a brilliant algorithm, and wrote a program about it, your actual program code is copyrighted but the algorithm is not. I can look at your program and rewrite the algorithm in my own style and that would be legal. Anything you write, say, record, paint, etc. is automatically copyrighted as soon as you create it. It is not necessary to register it with any authority.

Prof. Sarkar, Utkal University in his address told that Geographical indication is an effective strategic tool for development of rural enterprises. Two main factors influence the success of small rural enterprises are market access and socially constructed differentiation. One of the effective approaches to address these factors is for the enterprises to work together in order to develop a competitive advantage. The products displaying a geographical indication suggests that some form of value is embedded in the use of GI which is a mixture of economic, cultural and social values reflected in product-place linkages. Lesser known and lower quality products may earn small or insignificant price. In the context of developing countries, GI goods reflect strong links with localized specific production assets derived from local culture as it characterizes the “historical memory” of the local population and represents a catalyst of identity. He cited the example of Bikalkar Rasogola, Baripada Mudhi, Nayagarh Chenapora, Pipli Applique works etc. GIs draw from both natural and human resources located within the territory, thereby stimulating the rural economy. Original products are often considered useful instruments to preserve local culture and traditions and to foster rural development. Rural development depends on the extent to which local actors succeed in appropriating the rent with respect to actors located outside the territory. The rural development potential of GIs is dependent on an inclusive and representative Producers' Association that ensures participation of local actors and capacity building of the PAs so that they are able to capture more of the rents from the production and supply chain. Unless a geographical indication is protected in the country of its origin, there is no obligation under the TRIPS agreement for the other countries to extend reciprocal protection. GI Act defines “Geographical Indications in relation to goods as an indication which identifies such goods as agricultural goods, natural goods or manufactured goods as originating, or manufactured in the territory of a country or a region or a locality in that territory where a given quality, reputation or other characteristics of such goods is essentially attributable to its geographical origin and in the case of manufactured goods where one of the activities of either the production or of processing or preparation of the goods concerned takes place in such territory, region or locality, as the case may be.” Goods include any agricultural, natural or manufactured goods or any goods of handicraft or of the industry including food stuff.

During the question answer session some of the participants asked questions to the distinguished speakers, in turn which were clarified by the speakers in this session.

The one-day sensitization programme then concluded with a vote of thanks to the chair.

50) Assistance to weaker Section of the Society through different programmes

As per the policy decision of the Government of India for the upliftment of the weaker section of the society, this Institute has paid adequate attention in encouraging them to undertake activities in the small scale sector through different training and other programmes organized during the year 2011-12. The weaker section comprises women, scheduled caste, scheduled tribe and physically handicapped members including Minority Communities. The training programmes were organized with the objective to provide them techno-economic and managerial inputs besides practical training to develop the skills in setting up of their ventures.

A total no. of 3336 candidates among the weaker sections were trained in EDPs, ESDPs, MDPs & Skill Development Courses out of which 1084 women, 763 SC, 1543 ST, 3 PH and 2 Minorities. Besides, the officers of this Institute rendered technical assistance to existing and prospective entrepreneurs at their unit premises and at this office.

REVIVAL OF SICK MSME UNITS

60) Revival of Sick MSME Units

The MSME units are facing a rough weather in the state due to growing sickness in the sector. There are many inter related factors both externally and internally making the units sick. From January 1981, the Govt. of Odisha formulated the policy to grant assistance to sick small-scale units as an important part of the Industrial Policy. Through various IPRs (selected), including IPR – 2007, Government of Odisha has also taken note of extending revival assistance to sick MSME units. These are known as IPR benefits to sick MSME units like sales tax exemption both on purchase of raw materials & sale of finished goods, octroi exemption, exemption of electricity duty & other statutory duties like state investment subsidy, soft loan, sales tax loan etc. The financial institutions are also making some sacrifice by relaxing outstanding dues, waiving interest etc. From the central government side assistance like MMA, NEF,SLA through the state Govt. are also given. The workshop of this office located at Khapuria have been extending the service to many units in the process of their revival by doing job work, developing products.

61) Role of MSME Development Institute, Cuttack in Revival of Sick MSME Units

At present there is a three-tier system to discuss and finalise the cases for revitalization of sick MSME units. These are as follows:

- 18) District Level Committee (DLC)
 - ii) Sub-committee of the State Level Inter Institutional Committee (Sub-SLIIC)
- 19) The State-Level Inter Institutional Committee (SLIIC)

The District Level Committee has been entrusted with the task of receiving applications from the MSME units claiming to have gone sick. It examines the cases on a prima facie basis after undertaking quick studies at grass root level and recommends to the Sub-Committee of SLIIC for revival. The DLC is constituted under the Chairmanship of GM, DIC and other members of the committee are Branch Manager, OSFC – Branch Manager of concerned bank and representative from other organizations.

At the Sub-Committee of SLIIC Level the MSME Development Institute, Cuttack is the member convener of the sub-committee. The sub-committee of the SLIIC constitutes the core committee of the system and has been entrusted with the vital function of examining the cases referred by the DLC with professional expertise. The sub-committee is constituted with the membership of the Managing Director, OSIC, Director, EPM, Deputy Chief Officer, RPCD of Reserve Bank of India and the representatives of financing banks under the Chairmanship of Director of Industries, Government of Odisha and Director, MSME Development Institute, Cuttack as Member-convener. MSME Development Institute, Cuttack receives the applications and the report after duly scrutinized by the District Level Committee, undertakes appraisals for determining the suitability of the cases as per norms, co-ordinates the action of the members for further appraisal and devising package of assistance for the revival of the units as per norms. The MSME Development Institute, Cuttack prepares Desk Study Report on each of the eligible cases embodying the quintessence of information and decisions in respect of the unit and pilot the deliberations for each case and recommends to the State Level Inter Institutional Committee for approval for giving various assistances for revival.

The State Level Inter Institutional Committee (SLIIC) is the apex body to deal with matters of sickness and flow of credit to MSME sector and related matters. The sick unit cases recommended by the Sub-Committee are finally approved by SLIIC and it also formulate/changes policies with regard to the revival of sick MSMEs. Secretary InCharge of Industries, Government of Odisha is the Chairman of the Committee and RBI State Office is the convener.

As a member of the committee and member convener of the Sub-committee, the MSME Development Institute, Cuttack feeds information while decisions are taken in respect of cases as well as participate in the deliberations in taking decision by the Committee. During 2011-12, this Institute conducted three Sub-SLIIC Meetings on 25-6-2011(77th), 27-10-2011(78th) and 7-2-2012(79th) for revival of sick MSMEs.
